The objective of this article is to study the evolution of Colombian liberalization and integration into world trade from 1996 to 2018. We achieved our objective by measuring Colombia's importance in the world trade network through the employment of several types of network centrality metrics and the examination of their dynamics against a set of regional peers. We were able to conclude that Colombia's centrality in the world trade network did not improve, whereas that of some of her regional peers did
